He was a just man before God, walking in all the commandments and justifications of the Lord without blame.

The sweetest consolation taken to the grave is the thought of having been an irreproachable husband and father, a true friend who leaves for us an inheritance of christian virtues.

Beloved wife, death separates us now, but once we will live forever with Christ. My dear children, forget not the law of God, let your heart receive his words, keep his commandments and you shall live. Pray for me.

We have loved him during life, let us not forget him in death. St. Ambrose.

Sweet Heart of Jesus and Mary, be my refuge. (300 days indulgence.)

Sweet Heart of Mary, be my salvation! (300 d. ind.)

Our Father. Hail Mary.

Behold, O kind and most sweet Jesus, I cast myself upon my knees in Thy sight, and with the most fervent desire of my soul I pray and beseech Thee that thou wouldst impress upon my heart lively sentiments of faith, hope, and charity, with true repentance for my sins, and a firm desire of amendment, whilst with deep affection and grief of soul I ponder within myself, and mentally contemplate Thy five most precious wounds; having before my eyes that which David spake in prophecy: "They pierced My hands and My feet, they have numbered all My bones."

Plenary indulgence, applicable to the souls in purgatory.
